

About Amber

Amber Gunn has been with Peak Trust Company since 2014. Amber has worked in several positions at Peak, starting as a Trust Assistant, but now serves as a Trust Officer responsible for the administration of trust and IRA accounts.

Prior to joining Peak, Amber worked in trust administration since 2013 with Alaska USA Trust Company. Amber administers trusts situated in both Alaska and Nevada. Her expertise includes helping clients establish and administer life insurance trusts, trustee IRAs, and self-directed IRAs holding alternative assets.

Amber is an active member of the Anchorage Estate Planning Council. She has co-authored a number of articles related to IRA and charitable trust planning in Alaska.

Amber earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in English Education from University of Alaska Anchorage, and her Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA) designation from the Cannon Financial Institute.
