

Autumn Tremont

Associate Fiduciary Officer

Autumn Tremont has been with Peak Trust Company since 2023 and currently serves as an Associate Fiduciary Officer. In this role, Autumn is responsible for supporting all aspects of trust administration and new account intake, ensuring seamless service and prompt, accurate responses to Peak's clients and partners. Based in the Alaska office, she serves as a key resource for many of Peak's partners, leveraging her strong organizational skills and attention to detail.

Before her current position, Autumn excelled as a Fiduciary Assistant at Peak Trust Company, where she provided invaluable support to the fiduciary team. Prior to joining Peak, she worked as a property manager for a local real estate management company.

In recognition of her growing leadership in the field, Autumn was recently voted onto the board of directors for the Anchorage Estate Planning Council.

Outside the office, Autumn is an avid traveler, having visited 29 countries and counting. She enjoys hiking, kayaking, paddleboarding, snowboarding, and exploring remote cabins. Autumn holds an Associate Degree in Applied Science from the University of Alaska.

Autumn's dedication and diverse experience contribute significantly to the high-quality fiduciary services that Peak Trust Company provides.
