

Faydra Ross

Fiduciary Officer

Faydra Ross joined Peak Trust Company in 2023 and currently serves as a Fiduciary Officer in the firm's Nevada office. In this role, Faydra administers assigned client trust accounts and serves as the primary point of contact for all aspects of account oversight, administration, and client service. She is responsible for ensuring the accurate and timely administration of trusts while upholding strict standards related to account security, documentation, asset custody, and compliance protocols. Faydra approaches her work with a strong commitment to precision, responsiveness, and exceptional client service, helping foster confidence and continuity for account holders and their advisors.

Faydra brings more than a decade of estate, trust, and probate paralegal experience to her fiduciary practice. Her extensive background in trust and estate administration, coupled with deep familiarity navigating probate courts and fiduciary regulations, allows her to manage complex matters with clarity and professionalism.

Prior to joining Peak, Faydra worked as a paralegal supporting attorneys in estate planning and probate practices, where she excelled in coordinating case management, preparing filings and petitions, interfacing with courts and regulatory agencies, and conducting legal research. She most recently served as a paralegal at a Las Vegas law firm with a robust estate planning and probate caseload.

Faydra earned a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Southern New Hampshire University and an Associate of Applied Science degree in Paralegal Studies from Pioneer Pacific College. Her combined legal background and fiduciary expertise position her as a trusted resource for clients and colleagues alike.
