

Brent Liner

Senior Fiduciary Officer

Brent Liner joined Peak Trust Company in 2024 as a Senior Fiduciary Officer in our Alaska Office, bringing a decade of experience in trust administration and wealth management. Brent has a proven track record in managing complex trust accounts, enhancing operational processes, and mentoring team members to foster professional growth and excellence.

Before joining Peak, Brent held numerous leadership positions in trust and wealth management, where he administered significant portfolios, streamlined trust operations, and spearheaded policy updates to ensure compliance and operational efficiency. His career highlights include overseeing $1 billion in assets under management, redesigning trust administration processes, and serving as a subject matter expert and trainer in trust services.

Brent is actively involved in industry advancement, contributing to legislative evaluations through the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Trust Advisory Committee and participating in various Estate Planning Councils and Wealth Management Conferences. He is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

Brent earned his Juris Doctor from Campbell University, where he also completed a Master of Trust and Wealth Management, graduating magna cum laude. His undergraduate studies were completed at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History.

Talk to Brent

Have a question about an advanced planning technique?
Our seasoned experts are just a phone call away.

 (888) 544-6775

 bliner@peaktrust.com