

Jacob Creswell

Associate Fiduciary Officer

Jacob Creswell joined the team in 2025 and currently serves as an Associate Fiduciary Officer in Peak Trust Company's Alaska office, where he plays an integral role in trust administration and client relationship management. In this position, he supports and oversees the administration of complex trust accounts, ensuring regulatory compliance, executing fiduciary responsibilities, and working closely with clients and beneficiaries to provide attentive, personalized support.

Jacob first joined Peak as a Fiduciary Assistant, bringing with him a strong foundation in trust and wealth management. His early career included key internships at various Tennessee trust companies, where he contributed to estate planning, personal and special needs trusts, and business development initiatives.

Jacob earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in Trust and Wealth Management from Campbell University, graduating magna cum laude, with a minor in Financial Planning. During his academic career, Jacob was honored with multiple scholarships and academic distinctions, including placement on the President's and Dean's Lists. He also completed the Trust Emerging Leaders Certification program.

Driven by detail, integrity, and a commitment to client-focused service, Jacob brings a thoughtful and collaborative approach to each trust he helps administer – furthering Peak Trust Company's reputation for excellence in fiduciary services.
