

Jacob Creswell

Fiduciary Officer

Jacob Creswell joined Peak Trust Company in 2025 and currently serves as a Fiduciary Officer in the firm's Alaska office. In this role, he is responsible for the administration of complex trust accounts and for fostering strong, thoughtful relationships with clients and beneficiaries. Jacob works closely with families and their advisors to ensure each trust is administered in accordance with its governing documents, applicable regulations, and Peak's high standards of fiduciary care.

Jacob began his tenure at Peak as a Fiduciary Assistant, where he developed a strong operational foundation in trust administration and client service. Prior to joining the firm, he gained valuable industry experience through internships with several Tennessee trust companies, contributing to estate planning initiatives, the administration of personal and special needs trusts, and business development efforts. These experiences provided him with a well rounded perspective on the technical and relational aspects of fiduciary services.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in Trust and Wealth Management from Campbell University, graduating magna cum laude, with a minor in Financial Planning. During his academic career, Jacob received multiple scholarships and distinctions, including recognition on the President's and Dean's Lists, and completed the Trust Emerging Leaders Certification program.

Detail oriented and client focused, Jacob brings integrity, professionalism, and a collaborative mindset to every relationship he serves, supporting Peak Trust Company's continued commitment to excellence in fiduciary services.
