

Kyra Clarke

Fiduciary Officer

Kyra Clarke joined Peak Trust Company in 2026. She serves as a Fiduciary Officer in the firm's Nevada office. In this role, she manages complex trust accounts and supports clients and beneficiaries throughout the administration process. She reviews governing documents, coordinates distributions, and helps ensure each account is managed according to applicable requirements and Peak's standards of fiduciary care.

Kyra brings more than 20 years of experience in trust administration and fiduciary services. Her background includes personal trusts, estates, and complex client accounts. Throughout her career, she has held trust administration and relationship management roles at several major financial institutions.

At Peak, Kyra works with teams across the company to address the legal, tax, and administrative needs of each trust. She reviews complex documents and evaluates account activity. She also oversees required distributions and helps identify potential risks. Her clear communication helps clients and their advisors understand important decisions and next steps.

Kyra earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Information Systems from DeVry University. Her sound judgment and commitment to client service make her a trusted resource for Peak's clients and professional partners.
